At Breakout, we believe camp is the perfect opportunity to help players develop their offensive and defensive skills through interactive and individualized coaching and feedback in a setting that is encouraging, competitive, and fun! We feel confident that there is no better basketball education available in the South Shore.

Our summer staff is loaded with basketball expertise and has extensive experience coaching youth, AAU, high school, and collegiate athletes. Nearly 400 players attended our sold-out camps last summer! Join us this year and see why Breakout Basketball Academies have become the premier camps on the South Shore!

We hope you will join us this summer for a first-class basketball camp experience like no other!
